

Privacy notice

At Butterfly Wedding Supplies we are committed to maintaining the trust of our visitors. That's why we haven't just copied and pasted some free privacy policy from another website. Our privacy policy has been handwritten in a way that you (and us) understand exactly what it means!

Cookies - Yes we love to eat them too! But also we need to tell you that our website uses them to do things behind the scenes. They tell us how many people have visited our website and how long they have stayed there for.

When someone visits our website we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

When you book our services we ask for general information such as, name, address, email, telephone number and details of your event. We store these details in our system for our own use. We never share your personal details with any other company without your consent.

You are entitled to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold. Email your request to our data protection officer Joanne Perdue at joanne@butterflyweddingsupplies.co.uk

This privacy notice will be updated as necessary. It was last updated on 03.05.18
